THE AMBASSADOR CONFERRED WITH SMITH FOR 70 MINUTES AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

TALKING WITH REPORTERS AFTERWARD, THE AMBASSADOR SAID HIS CALL WAS "NOT EXACTLY A PROTEST" BUT AN EFFORT TO TELL "JUST EXACTLY WHY OUR PEOPLE ARE DEMONSTRATING AGAINST THIS PRESENT PEACE OFFENSIVE."

"WE ARE MAKING CONCESSIONS AND THE COMMUNISTS HAVE NOT MADE ANY CONCESSIONS AT ALL," HE SAID.

"OUR GOVERNMENT IS INSISTING THAT A UNIFIED KOREA BE PART OF THE PEACE PICTURE."
